KAYS THEATRE GROUP PRESS RELEASE

(To accompany picture of Harriet Amos who is playing the part of Little Bo Peep, in Kays Theatre Group's production of Little Bo Peep 21-31 January 2016)

Rehearsals have begun and Little Bo Peep has started her quest to find her missing sheep.

Harriet Amos, who plays the title role, said "I'm really looking forward to my first Kays Panto. It's a great script and we've got a fantastic cast too." The show is set not only in Fanny Fairacre's farm (played by Richard Hulbert) with lots of yokels and Buttercup the cow, but also at Cindy Sparkle's travelling show (played by Simone Pascolutti) featuring razzle dazzle dance routines, magic and conjuring tricks. The usual Kays chorus are complemented by the dancers from Harlequin Stage School, fresh from the England team which scooped the Dance World Cup.

Little Bo Peep, directed by Ann Mayor and Sue Sanderson, written by Paul Reakes in arrangement with Samuel French, is staged at The Swan Theatre, Worcester from 21st to 31st January 2016. Tickets are available from the Kays Box Office on 01905 425299 or 08453 883783 at only £11. Further details www.kaystheatregroup.co.uk
